

Ian

From: Forsyth, Deirdre [Deirdre.Forsyth@argyll-bute.gov.uk]
Sent: 29 September 2004 16:20
To: info
Subject: museums[Scanned]

In rural areas museums are very important for tourists and locals alike, but they are expensive to maintain. Could consideration be given to ways of assisting them. The museums run by the Scottish Executive in Edinburgh do not have to justify their existence [quite rightly] but these museums run by local authorities are often as important for our heritage and cultural life. Deirdre Forsyth Area Corporate Services Manager Mid Argyll Kintyre and Islay 01546 604558

Privileged/Confidential Information may be contained in this message. If you are not the addressee indicated in this message (or responsible for delivery of the message to such person), you may not disclose, copy or deliver this message to anyone and any action taken or omitted to be taken in reliance on it, is prohibited and may be unlawful.

In such case, you should destroy this message and kindly notify the sender - Deirdre.Forsyth@argyll-bute.gov.uk - by reply email. Opinions, conclusions and other information in this message that do not relate to the official business of Argyll and Bute Council shall be understood as neither given nor endorsed by it.

This email has been scanned for viruses, vandals and malicious content.