Dear Mr. Boyle,

Cultural Commission – Phase 1 Consultation Process

I refer to my reply dated 13th September 2004 in respect of your correspondence of August 2004, when you were seeking views of the specific questions raised in the Minister's Cultural Policy Statement.

Argyll and Bute Concert Tours discussed the document and questions contained therein at their meeting on 16th October and came to the conclusion that we could not answer because we did not understand the document. Almost everyone asked "What does this document mean?" or "What are they trying to say to us?"

I am sorry this is the outcome – surely the six music groups in Argyll and Bute cannot be the only ones in Scotland who did not understand the document?

Yours sincerely,

Margaret Thomson.
